

Mobile Phones

- In accordance with the recommendations of the MAAA, SRCS does not allow mobile phones to be taken into the transmitter pound, the pit area or the flight line.
- Due to the potential for affecting model transmitters and the concern that this could cause, this includes any mobile phone whether switched on or not.
- Mobile phones may of course be used in the car park area.